For the Week

Feeding the hungry

To allow the hungry to remain hungry would be blasphemy against God and one's neighbor, for what is nearest to God is precisely the need of one's neighbor. It is for the love of Christ, which belongs as much to the hungry as to myself, that I share my bread with them and that I share my dwelling with the homeless. If the hungry do not attain to faith, then the guilt falls on those who refused them bread. To provide the hungry with bread is to prepare the way for the coming of grace.

Hush ... hush

Seven-year-old Kathy tried to quiet her younger brother during a church service. "Hush ... hush," she warned him. "You're not supposed to talk out loud in church."

"Why?" asked the brother. "Who's going to stop me?"

Kathy pointed to the rear of the sanctuary. "See those men standing back there? Well, those are the hushers!"
