AROUND THE DIOCESE

Diocese of Fort Worth 40th Anniversary Rome Pilgrimage

It is hard to describe Rome in a few words; a city so vast and rich in art, monuments and exquisite views, a historic city, which has preserved its charm and independence throughout the centuries. Rome's history can be read in every monument and palazzo. The city could be described as a gigantic open-air museum, visited each year by millions; scholars and pilgrims from all over the world. Please join Bishop Vann and the Diocese of Fort Worth as we embark on a faith filled journey November 9-16, 2009 to the eternal city.

For more information and registration forms, please contact Barbara Boone at: diocesanpilgrimage@gmail.com.

First Monday Holy Hour

The Respect Life Office of the Diocese of Fort Worth is sponsoring a monthly Holy Hour from 7:30pm to 8:30pm at St. Patrick Cathedral, 1206 Throckmorton St., on the first Monday of each month. The hour will start with a rosary and be followed by silent Eucharistic Adoration. All are invited to come and pray for an end to abortion and all offenses to the sanctity and dignity of human life.

Rachel Ministries

To equip Therapists, Clergy, Pastoral Counselors and those involved in abortion recovery ministry with the tools they need to help clients deal with grief issues following pregnancy termination. A Conference will take place on Friday, May 1, from 8:30am to 5:00pm at the Fort Worth Botanic Garden, 3220 Botanic Garden Blvd. For a list of scheduled workshops and to register for this 2009 Conference, visit www.racheltx.org or call 817-923-4757.

EASTER SUNDAY: RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Acts 10:34a, 37–43/Col 3:1–4 or 1 Cor 5:6b–8
Jn 20:1–9 or Mk 16:1–7

What makes your heart burn? What would you hope for if you dared to look as deeply as possible in your own self, in your deepest need? What burns to be satisfied?

On the road to Emmaus, two followers of Christ were no longer able to visit those depths. They had spent a lot of time—and their energy and their hope—thinking they had found the place where hope could live and where their deepest longings could work with their feet. They had followed Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus said the kingdom of God was starting. Then they saw him crushed—arrested and dead, shamed for all to see. And their deepest hope was crushed and shamed too. They felt like idiots. And they were scared. Were they next?

So they walked away from Jerusalem, where all their hopes had come crashing down in Jesus' death.

Where have you been disappointed, felt tricked and insulted—hit hard enough to swear, “I will never let that happen again. I will not trust anyone like that again.”

If you've been hurt deeply enough, you can understand what these two disciples were feeling when they left for another village, Emmaus, a place away from where their future died.

What possessed them to have another conversation?

The person walking with them put their past in perspective, helped them revisit promises they had shared with each other and with others who felt let down. Their companion slipped into the place where their pain and questions were left unfinished. They recognized in him enough to invite him to stay.

Then they recognized him when he took bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them. In his hands, their broken hearts were taken up, blessed, and given back to them.

2009 Winner's Choice Raffle

St. Mary's Catholic Center provides Catholic Campus Ministry for the 12,500+ Catholic students at Texas A&M and Blinn College. After graduation, students bring their devotion to the faith and the skills they learned at St. Mary's to parishes all over Texas. The 2009 Winner's Choice Raffle is one way St. Mary's raises the funds needed for this vital work. This year's lucky winner gets to choose either a 2009 Chevy Cobalt LS Coupe, 2009 Chevy Colorado Regular Cab Truck, or a $15,000 scholarship to any post high school educational endeavor. To purchase tickets, call 1-888-240-TAMU during business hours or visit www.aggiecatholic.org. Your support DOES make a difference because:

- 114 Aggies have been ordained to the priesthood, permanent diaconate or made their final vows in religious life. Since 2000, 82 Aggies have entered the seminary or formation programs for religious orders. Even when Catholic colleges are considered, Texas A&M is a national leader in the number of former students who listen to God's call to the priesthood or religious life.
- Throughout Texas, thousands of faith-filled lay Aggie Catholics are assuming leadership roles in their parishes, community and within their chosen professions.

Thank you for your support of the Aggie Catholics! When you invest in St. Mary's, you are investing in the future of the Catholic Church! Get your tickets today for the drawing on Thursday, April 23, 2009.
