Diocese of Fort Worth

40th Anniversary Rome Pilgrimage

It is hard to describe Rome in a few words; a city so vast and rich in art, monuments and exquisite views, a historic city, which has preserved its charm and independence throughout the centuries. Rome's history can be read in every monument and palazzo. The city could be described as a gigantic open-air museum, visited each year by millions; scholars and pilgrims from all over the world. Please join Bishop Vann and the Diocese of Fort Worth as we embark on a faith filled journey November 9-16, 2009 to the eternal city. For more information and registration forms, please contact Barbara Boone at: diocesanpilgrimage@gmail.com.

*Greetings and a hearty welcome to all. It's encouraging to have you at this worship service.
May you be abundantly blessed.*

Good News!

June 7, 2009

The Most Holy Trinity

Dt 4:32-34, 39-40 / Rom 8:14-17 / Mt 28:16-20

The doctrine of the Trinity is an invitation to drink as deeply as we can from the knowledge of God, knowing we'll never hit bottom. It's a challenge—not to figure out the inner workings of God (we can't), but to take seriously the reality God reveals, which is both simple and profound. God created everything. God comes to us directly. God comes directly into creation and is still acting, changing, and inspiring today. Do we believe that?

The early Christians couldn't help but end up talking about the triune nature of God. They didn't come up with the idea of the Trinity. The Trinity came up with them. They were monotheists. The earliest followers of Jesus—the witnesses to the resurrection who went to their death rather than turn their backs on the message of who Christ was—had spent their whole lives hearing, recognizing, and praying, Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone (Mark 12:29). This God took them out of Egypt. Every Passover, they remembered: God took us out of Egypt! And now God took away the power of death too.

Christ's witnesses knew God was still with them. The Spirit of God let them see what Jesus meant and led them to tell other people. They couldn't help it. If they were to claim they knew anything, they knew they'd have to talk about the power of God, which had overcome their own defeat. These were people who ran away, who lost everything. These were preachers who walked into the same city they had fled to say that God had changed everything. Suffering meant something else now. Hope would not let go of them.

In the words of Deuteronomy 4:32: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of?

Wiesel's great insight

Holocaust survivor and Jewish author Elie Wiesel made a statement we all should remember when it comes to our judgment:

The opposite of love is not hate, it's indifference.

The opposite of art is not ugliness, it's indifference.

The opposite of faith is not heresy, it's indifference.

And the opposite of life is not death, it's indifference.

opinion that the world should go on.”

Prayer For The Course of Our Actions

Dear God,

We seem to be such busy “doers.”

There’s our “to-do” list and “honey-do list.”

When a friend is in sorrow, we tell them to let us know if there’s anything we can “do.”

Even Saint Paul tells us that faith without works is dead.

Yet —

Sometimes we’re so busy with the “works” we forget about the faith.

Help me, O God, to keep in touch with you, the wellspring of my faith.

Let me allow you, and not me, to be the real source of my actions.

Let the source of my actions determine the course of my actions. Amen.

—Peggy Ferrell
