“America”

Samuel Francis Smith, a Baptist pastor, wrote the hymn “America” (also known as “My Country, ‘Tis of Thee) in 1831. Smith was studying a tune he had never heard, although he knew the British used it for the hymn “God Save the King.” The British had borrowed the tune from the Germans, who gave it patriotic lyrics.

Smith described what happened as he contemplated the tune: “I instantly felt the impulse to write a patriotic hymn of my own, adapted to the tune. Picking up a scrap of waste paper which lay near me, I wrote at once, probably within half an hour, the hymn ‘America,’ as it is now known everywhere.”

Smith’s friend and classmate Oliver Wendell Holmes once told him, “Your name and fame will live when I and my works are forgotten.”

“The road of life twists and turns, and no two directions are the same. Yet our lessons come from the journey, not the destination.”
—Don Williams Jr.
