Parish Spotlight: Bulletin

The Most Blessed Sacrament bulletin contains news and updates from the Diocese, our parish as well as other parishes in our community, church organizations and ministries, inspirational, and occasional, humorous items. Our first bulletin was hand typed by Father James Gillespie and was published on October 15, 1978. Now, the bulletin is prepared on a computer using Adobe InDesign Creative Suite, printed digitally, and is available both in print and online at our parish website. Thanks to the generosity of JMH Printing (who has printed our bulletins since the first one in 1978), we have never needed to sell advertisements to finance the publishing of our weekly bulletin.

For the last 10+ years, the bulletin has been prepared and edited weekly by one of our parishioners. She could really use someone to help out occasionally. If you would like to put your creativity to good use and are familiar with Adobe InDesign, please email mbsbulletineditor@sbcglobal.net.

Please submit your bulletin items to the Church office by 12PM Thursday, or e-mail your news to:

MBSBulletinEditor@sbcglobal.net

dear Padre

July 18, 2010

What is a scapular?

My mother recently passed away. I've been going through her things, and I found a sort of necklace she won in grade school for getting the best score on a Catechism quiz. My aunt tells me it's called a scapular. What is that exactly?

Kristine

Dear Kristine,

There are two types of scapulars. The first type is a rectangle of cloth, maybe eighteen inches wide. It has an opening for the head, lays over the shoulders, and extends over the wearer's back and front almost to the floor. The word scapular comes from the Latin scapula, "shoulder." It's part of the religious habit of the Franciscans, Carmelites, Dominicans, and others.

The second type of scapular consists of one or two small (about 1/2-inch by 3/4-inch) pieces of cloth or wood that hang from the neck on two pieces of string or cord. Each side has a picture or prayer.

Of the many types of sacramental scapulars, the most common, and the one your mother probably won, is the brown scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. It's worn around the neck as an expression of commitment to the Mother of God and to living a holy life with her help.

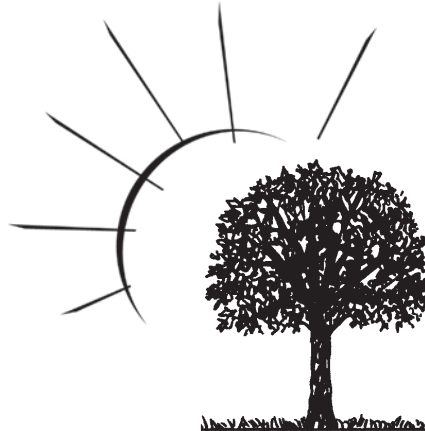

Some people wear the jerseys of their favorite sports team. A sweatshirt might say, "Property of the Chicago Bears." A scapular says in its own way, "Property of the Mother of God." Usually worn beneath one's outer clothing, it's a personal expression of devotion and a prayer for Our Lady's protection.

A prayer for summer

A rippling sea of green and gold
Is shimmering before us
As wind stirs the tall corn,
Wave after green wave rises high,
Reaching for the summer sun.

Lord God,
When you summon seeds
From these furrowed fields,
How readily they obey!

Like the myriad crops,
Help us grow steadily:
Help us stretch, ripen
Round out, unfold.

In the warm rays of your strength,
Help us yield goodness!
