RCIA

Do you know someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic? Would you like to know more about the Catholic faith? If you are not Catholic, have you thought of becoming a Catholic yourself? If the answer to any of these questions is a “yes” or a possible “maybe,” then call the Parish Office at 817-460-2751 for more information about the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

RCIA Classes meet Tuesday evenings from September through May.

Counseling services are now being offered through an inter-parish collaboration between St. Maria Goretti, St. Matthew, St. Vincent de Paul, Most Blessed Sacrament, St. Mary the Virgin, St. Joseph, St. Jude and Catholic Charities Clinical Counseling Program. Services include individual, marital, family, child, and group counseling and will be conveniently offered in the Arlington parishes. Fees are determined on a sliding scale basis. For more information, please contact Catholic Charities at 817-534-0814.

AROUND THE DIOCESE

School of Lay Ministry Accepting Registrations

The Diocese of Fort Worth's Pope John Paul II Institute School of Lay Ministry is accepting registrations of first-year students. Parishioners who want intensive training in lay ministry and current lay ministers who desire updated training may contact Fr. Carmen Mele, O.P. at the Catholic Center (tel: 817-560-3300; email: cmele@fwdioc.org). Complete information and an application are also available on the diocesan webpage at http://www.fwdioc.org/catechesis/pjp2_institute/school_lay_min/Pages/default.aspx. The two-year program will begin in September.

Are You Interested in Learning More about the Bible?

The Catholic Biblical School, offered by the School of Ministry of the University of Dallas, provides an opportunity for adults to come to know, love, and live scripture through an in-depth Bible study from a Catholic perspective. Classroom and online classes will begin in September, 2010. For more information, check our website <http://www.udallas.edu/academics/ministry> or call the Catholic Biblical School at 972-721-5393.

Educate The Children Volunteer Needed

Educate The Children (ETC), a Fort Worth Diocesan Mission Council Project headed by Father Thames in Cabezas, Bolivia, is seeking a volunteer for a one week project at the Senora Del Carmen School in Cabezas. The volunteer will need a current passport, be fluent in Spanish, operate a digital camera and be available to take a one week all expense paid trip to Cabezas, Bolivia before the end of October 2010. The volunteer will be provided with a camera, template for the letters and pictures, sufficient flash drives and a point of contact in Cabezas. The goal for this trip is to collect approximately 480 student letters, take individual student photographs, transfer the letters and pictures to an electronic file and return that file to ETC here in the Fort Worth Diocese. The staff at the Senora Del Carmen School in Cabezas will provide all assistance needed.

If you have any questions or a calling to travel to a remote part of Bolivia and assist with this important project, please contact Henry DelCastillo at delcasth@aol.com or telephone (817) 946-7200.

10-count washable markers (classic colors)

Dear Friends,

Your faithful support of Arlington Charities is deeply appreciated. Your monthly contributions to our Food Pantry help us to provide consistent, nutritional food to our clients. This is so important during the summer months, when our donations go down, and our numbers go up. And with school out, the clients need even better groceries, to keep their children healthy. You truly help us to "feed the hungry and clothe the poor".

Sincerely,
 Melanie L. Gibson
 Executive Director
 Arlington Charities, Inc.

Pray to End Abortion

We must unite as the body of Christ to fight the greatest evil of our day, abortion. To build a culture of life, we must start with prayer. Please join the worldwide "Pray to End Abortion" cause on Facebook, at www.ProLifePrayers.org. Be part of the largest prayer group in history!

Parish Group Spotlight: Catholic Scripture Study

Catholic Scripture Study (CSS) is an in-depth yet easy to understand study that is written in light of Catholic Tradition. This annual 28 week Bible study concentrates on one book of the Bible each year in weekly meetings of about 90 minutes in length. The program involves reading the current year's text and study guide along with hearing DVD commentary by noted Catholic authors and theologians. Classes are available on Monday evenings or Thursday mornings starting in September through April. CSS is in its fifth year at Most Blessed Sacrament. Past studies have covered Genesis and both St. Paul's Letters to the Romans and the Ephesians. This year's dynamic Bible study (Book of Exodus) and fellowship will increase your love of Scripture and strengthen your faith! Registration forms are available in the Parish Office now and at the Festival of Ministries in August. For more information, watch the bulletin, visit www.cssprogram.net or www.mostblessedsacrament.org (Parish Organizations/Catholic Scripture Study link) or call Eileen Finkeneller at 817-265-4484 or Chris Jarboe at 817-277-8559.

Good News!

July 25, 2010

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Gn 18:20–32 / Col 2:12–14 / Lk 11:1–13

The disciples ask Jesus to teach them to pray. Were they surprised by his answer? Scripture scholars say that much in the Lord's Prayer is found throughout the Jewish practice and worship the disciples and Jesus already shared.

What's new in Jesus' words? We're to pray for God's kingdom. What is stopping that kingdom? What powers deny justice? It's frightening to consider all the ways in which the poor are given no chance to improve their lot and the ways in which power is used to collect more power and more wealth in the face of those who have nothing.

Different people who pray for their daily bread ask for different things. Those who don't eat every day pray that will change. Can I eat today? Can my young children and my old parents eat? Would those of us who have much dare to ask for—dare to settle for—receiving just daily bread?

The Lord's Prayer moves us to ask for forgiveness and the strength to forgive. We ask, too, that when the biggest tests come, we'll receive the strength to endure them.

The epistle to the Colossians shows us where our hope and strength come from; our sins are nailed to the cross—to Jesus' deadly cross—the place where our debts are paid.

Two remarkable elements in the Lord's Prayer give new hope to each person who prays as Jesus taught. The early Church fathers understood the daily bread of Jesus' prayer as the Eucharist. Can we go to the table we share, can we see who is rich and who is poor there and see Christ in them?

This is daunting. Yet it is possible when we pray, as Jesus teaches us, to the One we can approach with intimacy and childlike trust—our Abba.
