A Special Celebration

Mark your calendars now for an evening prayer with a special blessing at Most Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church to honor those "receiving ecclesiastical honors" for the following faithful priests (in order of priestly ordination date):

Rev. Msgr. Hubert J. Neu, PA
Rev. Msgr. Charles B. King, PA
Rev. Msgr. Joseph S. Scantlin
Rev. Msgr. Philip L. Johnson

Bishop Kevin W. Vann will preside at the ceremony on Sunday, June 15th at 7:00PM in the parish sanctuary. A catered reception will follow at approximately 7:30PM in the parish hall and family life center. All parishioners are invited to attend.

Most people have never witnessed a ceremony such as this and it is guaranteed to be very memorable. Let's show Monsignor Scantlin, as well as the other fine priests, how much we appreciate their faith and service.

If you would like to help in any of our volunteer positions during the reception, please call Annie at 817-460-2751. We need people to cut cakes, serve as hospitality, clear tables, point directions, answer questions, etc.

*****

Because so many people have inquired as to appropriate gifts for this occasion, the following information is provided to assist you. Individual gift baskets for the Monsignori will be set up at the reception for cards of well wishes and congratulations. Should you wish to do more in gratitude for years of their faithful service, a gift of cash or by check (payable to the Monsignor, NOT the parish) enclosed in your card would be appropriate and much appreciated by any of the Monsignori.

Do godparents have to be Catholic?

My sister isn't Catholic, but I'd love for her to be my baby's godmother. Will the Church allow this?

Mary

Dear Mary,

A godparent must be a baptized Catholic who is at least sixteen (unless otherwise specified by the diocese), has received the sacraments of holy Eucharist and confirmation, and is in good standing with the Catholic Church. Only one godparent is required. Canon law allows a baptized (Christian) non-Catholic to be present as a witness as long as one godparent meets the requirements (874).

Most parents choose their children's godparents because of a personal relationship. But "godparent" is not merely an honorary title we bestow because someone is a friend or because it's a certain relative's "turn." My godparents were coworkers of my father's, and I didn't see them again until my ordination. A godparent is supposed to be involved in the faith formation of the baptized, not only as a Christian, but also as a Catholic. Your sister may be a better Christian than any Catholic you know, but she would not be able to offer guidance that is specifically Catholic.

I know you love your sister, but I recommend you choose godparents because of the way they live their Catholic faith and their willingness to share that faith with your child as she or he grows to Christian maturity. Choose godparents who can not only be good Christian examples, but good Catholic examples as well.

The meaning of service

After the Korean War, an American journalist was searching for human-interest stories. Inside a clinic run by Christians, he found a nun who was treating a Korean peasant's gangrenous wound.

The sight of the ugly infection turned the reporter's stomach. He said to the nun, "I wouldn't do what you're doing for all the money in the world."

The nurse calmly kept at her task and simply replied, "Neither would I."
