Could You Ever Come Back to the Catholic Church?

Do you feel separated from the Church because of divorce, doubts, painful memories, lifestyle, or any other reason?*

Do you sometimes feel an inner tug drawing your back?*

Do you have a lonely spot inside you that nothing seems to fit?*

If you answered yes to any of these questions, you're not alone.*

Sixteen Million Catholics feel separated from the Church, and 40% of you say you'd come back if the Church really wanted you.*

Maybe it's time you explore Coming Home to the Catholic Church! The Come Home Ministry at Most Blessed Sacrament Parish is a way to explore your intent to return, without being subjected to any pre-conceived notions about what you may need. Private conversations are non-judgmental with members of our Parish who are sympathetic to your dilemma. For a private meeting or telephone discussion please contact either Jo Anne Collmar at 817-274-0530, email joannecollmar@tx.rr.com or Jim Johnson at 817-265-0004, email jamigo@sbcglobal.net . We plan to start a program at MBS this coming fall if we have any willing participants. Let us hear from you.

The power of appreciation

Motivational speaker and author Dale Carnegie once told of a woman who worked with some church friends on a self-improvement program. After one meeting, she went home and asked her husband how she could be a better person, particularly as a wife.

The husband told her he'd think about it and provide an answer the next day. While pondering his wife's request, the man realized he could offer a few suggestions. But he also could think of a thousand self-improvement ideas for himself.

The next morning, the man ordered some roses. He had them sent to his wife with an uplifting note that read, "I love you just the way you are." After that, the couple's personal shortcomings seemed quite small in the face of their steadfast love for one another.
